Press Release

Sugaroni Vincenzo kiln produces more than 1200 sizes of hand-made cotto bricks in his factory located in Castel Viscardo with an area of more than 20.000 mq and with a large parking lot.

The company has also a large show-room and throughout its specialized customer service offers professional consulting for the usage, the laying, the finishing and the maintenance of hand-made cotto bricks. The factory is easily reachable from the motorway A1, the exit is Orvieto (TR) that is 15 km far away from the factory itself.

Open all year round (except for August, summer vacations and December, winter vacations), the company also produces custom made and/or personalized sizes and shapes. The company has present on the market for more than 200 years and it is one of the most important manufacturer of hand-made cotto bricks. It collaborates with public and private associations for the restructuring of very important historical buildings such as the Colosseum, the Domus Aurea in Rome, the basilica of St. Frances in Assisi.

The product is highly ecological and re-usable and can be used even in ecological architecture. In the last few years the percentage of growth has been good and the company is proud of a strong presence on the national market throughout qualified sellers, advertising on national and international magazines and participations to various important expos. The company is also socially active, sponsoring soccer team and participating to local popular festivals.

The company works even internationally, it is also proud, in fact, of participating to ONU humanitarian projects in favour of Somalia.

The company purpose is to promote the use of hand-made cotto in different shapes and sizes, new applications and new architectural solutions thanks to the knowledge of its operators who are sensitive to the market requests and to satisfy different customer's tastes that can range from classic to modern, from old to new, from country style to luxurious, from construction to furniture without leaving out new philosophies of life and new trends like feng shui and high Tech.
